

*Shelby County Fiscal Court
Office of the Judge Executive*

Proclamation

To All To Whom These Presents Shall Come:

WHEREAS, National Job Corps have been helping young people ages 16-24 since 1964, in a safe drug-free environment providing them with the opportunity to gain the experience they need to begin a career or further their education; and

WHEREAS, Job Corps now celebrates its 45th anniversary, having provided almost 3,000,000 youth in the U.S. with the tools they need to become successful and improve their quality of life; and

WHEREAS, Job Corps has 123 centers nationwide, including the historic facility located here in Shelby County, the Whitney M. Young Job Corp; and

WHEREAS, Job Corps offer hands-on training in more than 100 career technical areas such as health care, business and finance services, hospitality, manufacturing, and many more; and

WHEREAS, Job Corps is the nation's largest career technical training and education program for young people at least 16 years of age.

Now Therefore, I Rob Rothenburger, Shelby County Judge-Executive do hereby proclaim September 23, 2009

Job Corps Recognition Day

And urge the people of Shelby County, Kentucky to recognize the positive advances and successes that Job Corps have enabled the young people of our nation to experience for 45 years and counting.
